COLORADO SPRINGS (October 22, 2018) – AEG Presents and Pikes Peak Center for the Performing Arts are excited to announce An Acoustic Evening with LYLE LOVETT & JOHN HIATT at Pikes Peak Center on Monday, February 11, 2019.

LYLE LOVETT

A singer, composer and actor, Lovett has broadened the definition of American music in a career that spans 14 albums. Coupled with his gift for storytelling, the Texas-based musician fuses elements of country, swing, jazz, folk, gospel and blues in a convention-defying manner that breaks down barriers. Whether touring as a ‘Duo’ or with his ‘Acoustic Group’ or his ‘Large Band’, Lovett’s live performances show not only the breadth of this Texas legend’s deep talents, but also the diversity of his influences, making him one of the most compelling and captivating musicians in popular music. Since his self-titled debut in 1986, Lovett has evolved into one of music’s most vibrant and iconic performers. Among his many accolades, including the four Grammy Awards, he was given the Americana Music Association’s inaugural Trailblazer Award, and was named Texas State Musician.

JOHN HIATT

Hiatt is a singer-songwriter and musician who has played a variety of musical styles on his albums, including new wave, blues, and country. He has been nominated for 9 Grammy Awards and been awarded a variety of other distinctions in the music industry.

“You know how writing goes for me,” Hiatt says, offering a glimpse into his creative process. “I get a couple of lines going, and then I just tag along as the songs start to reveal themselves. You’ve just gotta jump inside and take the ride.”

Hiatt has been on that ride for more than four decades. Since the release of his 1974 debut, Hangin’ Around the Observatory, rarely has more than a year or two passed without a new Hiatt collection hitting the shelves.
