NEEDTOBREATHE's 2019 "ACOUSTIC LIVE TOUR" heads to Pikes Peak Center April 15, 2019

Tickets go on sale Friday, November 16

COLORADO SPRINGS (November 12, 2018) — On the heels of the biggest and best-selling tour of their career, southern rock band NEEDTOBREATHE will take their music to the fans once again starting in February 2019, stopping at Pikes Peak Center for the Performing Arts on Monday, April 15 at 7 p.m. This tour will support the group's first-ever acoustic live album, Acoustic Live Vol. 1. Click here for a short film and sample from the album.

"On our first acoustic tour, we only got to play about 12 or 13 shows in less than 10 cities," said Bear Rinehart of NEEDTOBREATHE. "We had an absolute blast while on the road for that run and for the recording of Acoustic Live Vol. 1. We decided that when we do it again, we wanted to take the acoustic show to as many places across the country as possible. So although this isn't our first acoustic tour, we will be playing our acoustic show in most of these cities for the first time ever and we could not be more excited to show the fans this side of our band."

Tickets for the April 15 concert range in price from $40 - $70, plus applicable fees, and will go on sale Friday, November 16 at the Pikes Peak Center box office, PikesPeakCenter.com, AXS.com or via phone at (719) 520-SHOW. They can also be purchased at The Broadmoor World Arena box office and BroadmoorWorldArena.com.

One dollar from every ticket sold for this concert will go to NEEDTOBREATHE's partnership with OneWorld Health to support the organization in its mission of providing sustainable healthcare to regions in East Africa and Central America. To date, NEEDTOBREATHE has raised more than $2 million through ticket sales, fan donations and the band's annual golf tournament, and helped to open two NEEDTOBREATHE Medical Centers in Tola and Jinotega, Nicaragua. Fans interested in learning more about NEEDTOBREATHE's partnership with OneWorld Health can visit NeedToBreatheCares.org.

Described as "a multi-crossover band" by the Atlanta Journal-Constitution and "incredible instrumentalists" by the Dallas Observer, Metro Weekly raves that the "four-piece rock band, fronted by the Rinehart brothers, puts on an impressive and stirring live show, courtesy of strong group cohesion, uplifting music, and especially Bear Rinehart's powerhouse pipes."
