

Josh Turner returns to Colorado Springs and the Pikes Peak Center on Saturday, July 20

Tickets will go on sale on Friday, May 17

COLORADO SPRINGS (May 13, 2019) – Gospel singer and one of country music’s most recognizable hit makers, MCA Nashville recording artist Josh Turner returns to Colorado Springs at Pikes Peak Center for the Performing Arts on Saturday, July 20 at 8 p.m.

Tickets, which range in price from $35 to $89 plus applicable fees, will go on sale on Friday, May 17 at 10 a.m. and can be purchased at the Pikes Peak Center and The Broadmoor World Arena box offices, online at PikesPeakCenter.com, BroadmoorWorldArena.com and AXS.com, or via phone at (719) 520-SHOW.

From his 2003 Platinum-selling debut Long Black Train to his 2017 Billboard No. 1 release, Deep South, Turner has scored multiple GRAMMY®, CMA and ACM Awards nominations and received six Inspirational Country Music Awards. As one of the youngest members inducted into the Grand Ole Opry, Turner has sold more than eight million units, topped more than 1.5 billion in global streaming and populated radio with such memorable hits as “Hometown Girl,” “Would You Go With Me,” “Your Man,” “Time Is Love,” “Why Don’t We Just Dance” and “Long Black Train.”

With his newest project, I Serve A Savior, which debuted at No. 1 atop Nielsen’s Country Albums chart and No. 2 on Billboard’s Top Christian Albums Chart, Turner adds an exciting new dimension to his already acclaimed career. I Serve A Savior is a thoughtful gospel collection that finds Turner’s rich, distinctive baritone paired with timeless classics including “Amazing Grace,” “How Great Thou Art” and “Great Is Your Faithfulness,” as well as introducing originals including the title track, “I Serve A Savior,” and “The River (of Happiness),” written by his wife, Jennifer, and their eldest son, Hampton.
