

Jim Brickman brings A Joyful Christmas to Colorado Springs on Thursday, December 6 at Pikes Peak Center

Presale begins, Friday, June 8 at 10 a.m.

Tickets go on sale, Wednesday, July 25

Christmas will sparkle with new life when Grammy-nominated songwriter and pianist Jim Brickman brings his beautiful music and charm to Pikes Peak Center for the Performing Arts on Thursday, December 6 during his 30-city 2018 holiday tour A Joyful Christmas.

Tickets, which range in price from $38 to $68, plus applicable fees, will be available during a presale period starting Friday, June 8. They will go on sale officially on Wednesday, July 25. They will be available at the Pikes Peak Center box office, PikesPeakCenter.com, AXS.com, or by phone at (719) 520-SHOW. Tickets can also be purchased at The Broadmoor World Arena box office or BroadmoorWorldArena.com.

In honor of this 22nd annual holiday tour, Brickman will debut original songs, along with the sounds and stories of the season. He'll perform his favorites, the hits and classics, and exciting new sounds in a concert experience like a Christmas card come to life. A Joyful Christmas has been hailed by Nashville Music News as a "holiday classic" and "not to be missed."

During this tour, Brickman will showcase the songs that have made him the most charted Billboard® Adult Contemporary artist, earning him two Grammy® nominations and four gold albums. With featured musical guests, feelings of comfort and joy are fused together with Brickman's most beloved hits like "The Gift," "Angel Eyes," and "Sending You A Little Christmas." Whether one needs to escape the hustle and bustle or keep their spirit bright, they'll be reminded of what is cherished most during the most wonderful time of the year. . . Together.

"Brickman's charm makes for an ingeniously imaginative holiday celebration," said the New York Daily Gazette.

"Be prepared for a warm and wonderful winter's night while enjoying a concert that is brimming with emotion...a Christmas tradition!" acclaimed The Dallas Morning News.

"I love to perform live more than anything and I think the tone of my shows is such a familial and inviting type of experience that it's really become a tradition for a lot of people, which I'm thankful for," said Brickman.
