COLORADO SPRINGS (April 2, 2018) – Country music megastar Clint Black is returning to Colorado Springs for one night only to perform at Pikes Peak Center on Wednesday, June 13.

Throughout one of the most storied careers in modern music, Black sold more than 20 million records; earned more than a dozen gold and platinum awards in the U.S. and Canada; landed nearly two dozen major awards and nominations, including over a dozen GRAMMY nominations; and earned a star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame. An American Music Awards, Country Music Association and Academy of Country Music award-winner, Black last played Pikes Peak Center in 2014 and returns on June 13 for “An Evening with Clint Black”.

Tickets will go on sale Friday, April 6 at 10 a.m. with an Early Bird Special. For a limited time only, the show will offer seats as low as $39.00, plus applicable fees at the Pikes Peak Center box office, PikesPeakCenter.com, AXS.com and via phone at (719) 520-SHOW. Tickets will also be available at the Broadmoor World Arena box office or at BroadmoorWorldArena.com. Ticket prices are subject to an increase at an unspecified later date.

As part of the fabled Class of '89 who brought a resurgence to country music, (including, Garth Brooks, Alan Jackson, Travis Tritt, and Mary Chapin Carpenter), Black surged to superstardom as the first member of that class, reaching No. 1 with five consecutive singles from his triple-platinum debut album “Killin' Time”. He followed that with the triple-platinum “Put Yourself in My Shoes”, and then a string of platinum and gold albums throughout the '90s.

Black wrote or co-wrote every one of his more than three dozen chart hits, including "A Better Man," "Where Are You Now," "When My Ship Comes In," "A Good Run of Bad Luck," "Summer's Comin'," "Like the Rain" and "Nothin' But the Taillights," part of a catalog that produced 22 No. 1 singles and made him one of the most successful singer/songwriters of the modern era.
