Tickets will go on sale on Friday, May 24

COLORADO SPRINGS (May 20, 2019) -- A worldwide sensation when she was only ten years old, Jackie Evancho has moved past the exuberant promise of a child prodigy vocalist and become a classical crossover singing sensation.

First dazzling American television audiences at the age of 10, gaining global recognition with her stunning debut on NBC's America's Got Talent, Evancho has released a string of platinum and gold albums, with sales of more than 3 million in the U.S. Evancho has also made history as the youngest solo platinum artist, the youngest Top 5 debut artist ever in the U.K., the youngest person to give a solo concert at Lincoln Center, and the highest-ranking debut artist of 2010. All seven of Evancho's albums have hit No. 1 on the Billboard Classical chart. The magnitude of her success led Billboard twice (in 2010 and 2012) to include Evancho on its list of "music movers-and-shakers under the age of 21."

On Saturday, February 29, 2020, Jackie Evancho will be in concert at Pikes Peak Center for the Performing Arts for one night only starting at 7:30 p.m. Tickets, which are $40 plus applicable fees for all seats, will go on sale on Friday, May 24 at 10 a.m. They can be purchased online at PikesPeakCenter.com, BroadmoorWorldArena.com and AXS.com. They can also be purchased at the Pikes Peak Center and The Broadmoor World Arena box offices or via phone at (719) 520-SHOW.

Evancho's meteoric rise is already a show business legend. In addition to her solo success, Evancho has recorded duets with such notable artists as Tony Bennett, Plácido Domingo, Barbra Streisand, Chris Botti, and Joshua Bell. In 2010, Evancho performed at the lighting of the National Christmas Tree in Washington, D.C. for President Barack Obama and his family, and in 2015 she performed at the Festivals of Families in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania that Pope Francis I attended during his U.S. visit. Evancho has modeled in GUESS Kids clothing campaigns, and made her feature film debut in 2013 when Robert Redford cast her as his daughter in The Company You Keep, a thriller that starred Susan Sarandon, Shia LaBeouf, Anna Kendrick, Terrance Howard, Nick Nolte and Stanley Tucci.
