COLORADO SPRINGS (September 9, 2019) – Dunder Mifflin is opening an office near you! Producers of the sold out, unauthorized Off-Broadway sensation The Office! A Musical Parody and Pikes Peak Center for the Performing Arts today announced the North American tour will make a stop in Colorado Springs on Tuesday, March 24, 2020.

Tickets are $40 plus applicable fees and are on sale now. They can be purchased at the Pikes Peak Center and The Broadmoor World Arena box offices and online at PikesPeakCenter.com, BroadmoorWorldARena.com and AXS.com.

It's a typical morning at Scranton's third largest paper company until, for no logical reason, a documentary crew begins filming the lives of the employees of Dunder Mifflin. Don't miss this hilarious, unauthorized parody of your favorite TV show, now coming to a city near you. Mashable calls the show "the world's most elaborate inside joke, created with a whole lot of love, just for fans."

Original Off-Broadway cast member, Madeline Glenn Thomas, joins the tour cast as everyone's favorite receptionist, Pam.

Writers Bob and Tobly McSmith are ecstatic about their third national tour. "The Office! A Musical Parody is on track to be our most successful New York production in 10 years," says McSmith. "The Office! A Musical Parody is now one of the most successful Off-Broadway shows in history. As Michael might say, 'It's been a dream come thru.'"
